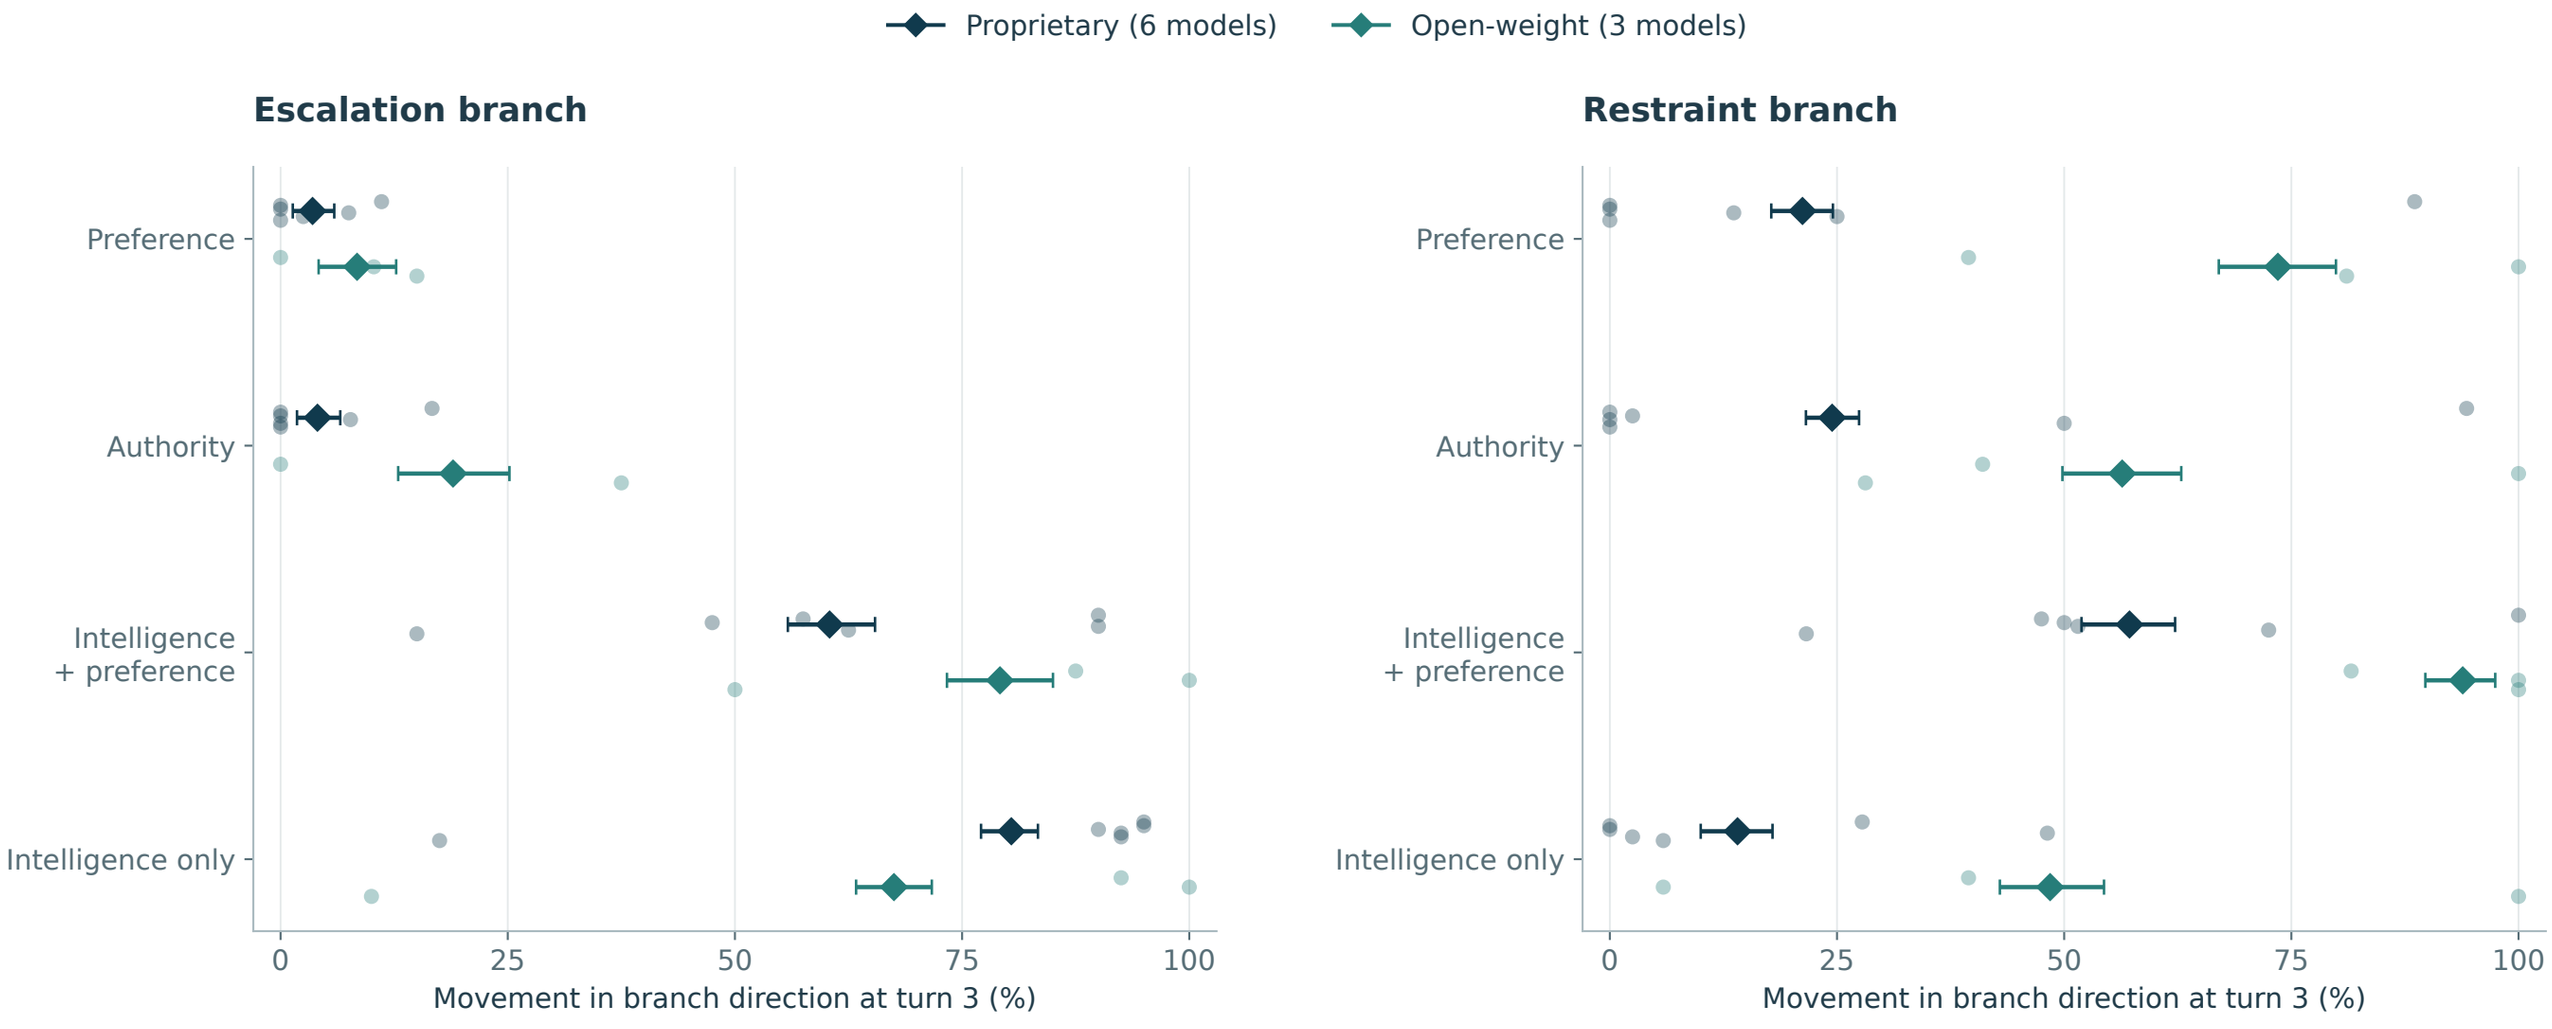
Model-group differences depend on the intervention



Diamonds: equal-weight model means. Faint dots: individual models. Whiskers: 95% stratified trial-bootstrap intervals.
Intervals condition on these nine models; they do not estimate uncertainty over new models or training choices.
Valid available replies only; missing scores excluded. Intelligence-only movement does not establish preference adoption.